Grant season has begun. Funding is available for basic scientific research to support forensic science.
Attached:

1. Request for Proposals Basic Research: This is an overview of the solicitation.
2. Formal Solicitation
3. Request for Grant Funds. Form for you to return to me if you are interested. All I need at this stage is short narrative of your proposal and an estimated budget.

Deadline to return Request for Grant Funds is February 6, 2013. This is a competitive grant. If we were to receive funding, it would be awarded for a start date of October 1, 2013. Please let me know if you have any questions.

This is not being sent to DEMS as they are excluded from receiving funding.
